THE TALKS

Nobody Expects The Solidarity Federation! - Room 318, 11-12

A review of recent SF campaigns, the tactics used and lessons learnt.

Stuff Your Sexist Boss - Room 326, 2-3

A workshop exploring our experiences of sexism and sexual harassment in the workplace, and looking at ways to deal with it. Self-identified women only.

Boycott Workfare - Room 326, 2-3

This workshop will explore workfare, and share stories and ideas for future action. (Organised by Boycott Workfare with SF speaker)

Strikes, Nukes & Overdue Subscription Fees - Room 322, 2-3

A presentation by comrades from the Sparrows Nest focussing on the period between the end of the Spanish Civil War and the iconic events of the late 1960s, based on archives from SF predecessors the Anarchist Federation of Britain, the Syndicalist Workers Federation and the Direct Action Movement.

What is Class Struggle? - Room 320, 3-4

Members of Anarchist Federation, SF and IWW will explain what we mean by “class struggle”, why it is still important in today’s society and then open up the debate with those present.

Introduction to Anarcho-Syndicalism - Room 323, 4-5

An introduction to anarcho-syndicalism and the launch of the new SF pamphlet, ‘Fighting for ourselves: anarcho-syndicalism and the class struggle’.

Don’t Just Moan, Organise! An Introduction to the Solidarity Federation Workplace Organiser Training Programme - Room 321, 5-6

A taster session of the SF organiser training.

A member of Solfed will also appear on the panel at Anarchist Economics - Mason Lecture Theatre, 4:30-6:30

THE STALL
