

Stop Whole Foods Victimisations

We're standing here today to demand justice for an unfairly sacked Whole Foods worker.

Natalia was a long-term employee at the Whole Foods in San Francisco. She was respected by her colleagues for speaking up for herself and her co-workers. For her outspokenness, management first tried to promote. When she turned that down, she was sacked without due process or cause.

The demand is simple, full reinstatement for Natalia with back pay.

Please voice your demand for Natalia's reinstatement by emailing Whole Foods Regional President David Lannon - david.lannon@wholefoods.com

Who are we and why do we care?

The London local sections of the Solidarity Federation are part of an organisation that encourages workers self-organisation and collective action, whether capitalism likes it or not. We are happy to lend our solidarity and support to Natalia and to any other worker that has faced bullying and victimisation at the hands of any employer. Get in touch if you have!

Our answer is solidarity, mutual aid and direct action.
